RE: Proposed Rule Changes, Administrative File No. 2003-4

Dear Mr. Davis:

I have reviewed various letters from attorneys to you, who have voiced their complete and strong opposition to many of the proposed changes and I could not say it any better than these attorneys have already stated.

The proposed changes completely deny due process to defendants no matter what their plight, and certainly would encourage excessive litigation.

These changes eliminate the right of many defendants to properly investigate and proceed with their cases, based, for the most part, on their indigence. This cannot be reasonably justified nor would it be in the best interest of any one concerned, and certainly would not serve justice or the court system.

Please do not permit these changes.

Very truly yours,

Joanne Vallarelli Adam
